Sajian Nana
Dulu & Kini

23 February to 21 March 2026

In the quiet hours before sunset, the kitchen comes alive with the familiar routines of Ramadan: the clinking of pots, the fragrance of simmering broths, and Nana's patient hands guiding the next generation.

Here, flavours are more than ingredients. They are memories. They are the laughter of generations gathered around a worn wooden table, the familiar clang of a well-seasoned wok, and the gentle voice of Nana guiding nimble hands learning to cook for the very first time.

This spirit of togetherness is what inspires our Sajian Nana Dulu & Kini Iftar dining experience. A tradition that honours the flavours of days gone by while embracing the joys of today. From cherished recipes prepared the way Nana once taught, to heartfelt gatherings that reconnect us, we invite you to savour the tastes that shaped us, the stories we continue to share, and the moments we create anew.

Welcome home to a spread woven with heritage, memory, and the enduring warmth of Ramadan.

SAJIAN NANA DULU & KINI

IFTAR DINNER BUFFET

SERENA
BRASSERIE

23 February to 18 March 2026 | 6:30pm to 10:30pm

Break fast with a journey through flavours passed down from one generation to the next. At this year's iftar, guests will be welcomed into the heart of Serena Brasserie, where Nana herself takes centre stage in a special live demonstration, preparing beloved heritage dishes the way they were taught, the way they were shared, and the way they were remembered.

Savour timeless Malaysian favourites, including Nasi Bukhara, Sup Campur Berempah "Wak Shukur", Ikan Bakar Melaka, Gulai Kering Tetel Kukus Buluh, Steamed Braised Aromatic Beef in Bamboo, Gulai Lemak Perut Kerisik, Ayam Panggang Sambal Belimbing, Ikan Rebus Goreng Sambal Belacan, Sambal Ubi Kayu, and Chicken & Beef Satay, each prepared with flavours that echo the comfort of home.

This is an iftar crafted to reconnect you with the warmth of family tables, the stories behind every recipe, and the joy of sharing a meaningful meal together.
